

Like other students, do you dream of becoming an IAS officer someday?

Well, I do know that someday, you dream to become an IAS officer and you want to rectify all these issues in our Indian society. To achieve that stage, one has to clear the single toughest and the most essential examination in India called the Union Public Service Commission examination or most commonly referred as the UPSC examination.

Now, in this blog, the details of the UPSC examination, how to choose the best online UPSC coaching, and online coaching fees of UPSC will be covered.

Introduction

The Union Public Service Commission (UPSC) conducts the Civil Services Examination (CSE) every year to select deserving and capable candidates to serve for various prestigious positions and responsibilities such as an Indian Administrative Service (IAS), Indian Police Service (IPS), and other central services.

This exam is conducted in three stages:

Preliminary (CSAT)

This is mainly a screening test with general studies and a qualifying CSAT paper, this is a kind of tougher exam to crack.

Mains (optional subjects)

If you clear Prelims examination then only you can take Mains. This exam has essay writing and subject-specific exams beforehand.

Interview

Once you clear both of the above exams and you get shortlisted then you need to take a personality test so that you can get to know that whether you are suitable for this role or not.

Shift from traditional to online classes

Over the years, the technology keeps on developing and growing, system of online classes have been introduced. Many giants like Google, Apple, Microsoft, Zoom, GoTo, etc. have developed their softwares which enable these online classes.

Same adopted by UPSC coaching centers as well. Many coaching centres have started their UPSC online coaching classes, this is a benefit for many students who live in different cities and want to take coaching from reputed institutes in India.

Same was adopted by one of the institute named Deogharias Academy (DIA) which were being explained into details here. It is an IAS academy that was established in the year 2023 to help those students who want to take up UPSC, JPSC, BPSC and other state PSCs.

It provides doubt clearing sessions, event and seminars, etc to develop problem solving skills in the students, this skill will help them to serve the country and take quick decisions.

They have also designed a unique program to enhance your answer writing skills with the help of one-to-one mentorship. They have both physical and online classes, so you can choose as per your preference and need.

Why Online Coaching is the Best Choice for UPSC in 2024

- Flexibility and convenience: This is one of the best advantage of UPSC online coaching classes. As you can learn at your own pace , whether you are a full-time working professional, student, or someone with other responsibilities. You can watch recorded sessions and can join from anywhere in the world.
- Access to top educators: With online classes you can take coaching from top professors or educators on various online platforms like Google meet, Zoom, or Microsoft teams, you will get high-quality education, you can clear your doubts and take live sessions.
- Cost-effective learning: Online classes will be much more affordable to you, as there are many platforms that offer various packages to choose from that suits your budget. You will get free study materials like current affairs updates, sample papers and webinars, etc.
- Interactive and engaging: On many platforms you will find many interactive features like whiteboard, live classes, quizzes, and discussion forums. These features will help you to study with other students in your batch.

Key Features to Look for in the Best Online Coaching for UPSC

- Experienced faculty: Whenever you enroll for online classes, always look for the professor who has proper knowledge of UPSC or have been a previous UPSC applicant. A good teacher will be able to help you get the information that you are interested in, make you understand concepts that are hard to grasp, etc.

- Comprehensive study material: Select the classes from where you can get all types of study materials right from well scheduled notes, books, PDFs, video lectures and everything which is needed to complete your syllabus.
- Comprehensive study material: Choose that platform where you can get comprehensive study materials such as well-structured notes, books, PDFs, and video lectures that cover your entire syllabus.
- Mock test and practice papers: Regular practice is must if you want to achieve your dream. The best online coaching platforms offers mock tests, including full-length exams, subject-specific tests, and old question papers.

Detailed Analysis of Coaching Fees

Whenever you choose an online class, you always look for the coaching fees that fits in your budget. Different platforms have different fee structures because of various factors like course duration, faculty experience, any additional features.

Here is the fee structure of Deogharias Academy (DIA):

(fee structure)

Whenever you want to decide which online classes will be value for money, then compare what you are getting in return for the fees you are paying for. This includes the quality of faculty, comprehensiveness of study materials, frequency of mock tests, availability of mentorship, and overall student support.

Success Stories and Testimonials

Case Study 1:

Consider the story of an aspirant (Name) who, despite being from a small town with limited resources, achieved success in the UPSC exam through Deogharias Academy's online coaching. The academy's comprehensive resources, regular mentorship, and personalized feedback helped this student overcome obstacles and excel in the exam.

Case Study 2:

Another success story could be of a working professional (Name) who balanced a full-time job with UPSC preparation. Deogharias Academy's flexible online coaching allowed them to learn at their own pace, eventually leading to success in the exam.

How to Choose the Right Online Coaching for UPSC

- Assess Your Learning Style: You should know how you can test your learning style. Based on your learning style you can choose the best online coaching for UPSC. You want to learn through online classes or offline classes? Decide that. If you will question your preferences, it will help you to choose the best platform.
- Trial classes and reviews: Before paying the fees, i advise you to take trial classes first, as you will get to know about their teaching style, quality of the content, and platform's user interface.
- Additional resources: Choose those platforms that offer extra resources beyond the standard curriculum, such as current affairs updates, interview preparation, and essay writing guidance. These additional resources are crucial for holistic UPSC preparation.

Conclusion

Online coaching is a powerful medium for UPSC students. That is why it has such benefits as flexibility, an opportunity to have the best educators, and rather cheap studying. Thus, selection of a proper platform that fits and corresponds to the single's learning abilities and that provides all the necessary support should increase the chances of success in UPSC examination multiple times